DAGMAR - SHERIDAN - MONTANA
- just south of the Canadian border -

Members of the Sundsted family settling in Dagmar:

In 1907 Erik (b.1880) and Anton (b.1882), homesteaded nine miles northwest of Dagmar.

Their sisters: Elsine Katrine (b.1887) homesteaded in 1908 and Marie Magdalene (b.1886) took her homestead in 1910. Brother Thomas (b.1889) and their father, B-2. Knud Sundsted (b.1840) also arrived that year.

Grandpa Knud said when he came to Dagmar in 1910: "This is good soil."

Grandpa Knud died in 1911 and was buried in the Nathanael Lutheran Cemetery of Dagmar.

ERIK SUNDSTED's HOMESTEAD SOD SHACK - 1907

ELSINE KATRINE SUNDSTED'S HOMESTEAD SOD SHACK - 1907

Elsine Katrine, the "mother" of the family, ran the household on the Sundsted Company farm for many years before she married Jim Kaae in 1926.

In the spring of 1908, E-2, C.C. Christen "Chris" Sundsted, the father of "Maggie" and her husband, Chris Johansen (1882-1944) decided to take advantage of the Homestead Act.

They filed on pieces of adjoining land some seven miles southeast of Antelope. A small frame house was built on C.C. Sundsted's land. They began to erect a sod shack and then went back to their families in Racine WI. for the winter.

In the spring of 1909, both families came out to settle permanently on the Montana prairie.

"Maggie" and her husband Chris Johansen, with their two little girls, Elsine and Agnes lived with Grandpa Sundsted's in his frame house, until their own two room, two window, sod shack could be completed.

They had 6 children:

Elsine (1907), Agnes (1908), Carl (1911), Chris (1913), Helen (1917, who lived only two months), and Helen, born in 1918.

In 1907, after reading articles about the Danish settlement Dagmar in the Danish-language newspapers, "Dannevirke" and "Den Danske Pioneer", the family members:

Anton (1882-1964), Erik (1880-1971) and Elsine Katrine (1887-1976) arrived in Montana from Racine Wisconsin.

They homesteaded in an area of Dagmar, which became known as "Racine Valley" because of the many Danish immigrants who came from Racine.

In 1908 C.C. Sundsted, (1854-1921), his wife Ane Marie (1885-1904) and their youngest son Niels (1902-1980) arrived. Their older son, Thomas, (1890-1958) came in 1910, but returned to Racine in 1913.

In 1909, Magdalene "Maggie" (1879-1949) her husband, "Chris" Johansen, (1882-1949). Also, her cousin, Marie Magdalene (1886-1971) married 1912 to Mikkel Poulsen (1886-1963) also arrived and homesteaded in Racine Valley.

Photo from ca. 1920 - Anton and Helga Sundsted's home under construction. A year later, during the summer of 1908, Anton's uncle, C.C. Sundsted constructed a similar house consisting of three rooms, a kitchen and clothes room. (It was the only house in the neighborhood constructed of wood which had to be hauled by wagon from Culbertson.)

In 1908 “C.C.” Sundsted, (1854-1921) came to Dagmar with his wife Ane Marie (1885-1904) and their youngest son Niels (1902-1980). Their older son, Thomas, (1890-1958) came in 1910, but returned to Racine in 1913.

MOGUL GAS FARM TRACTOR BREAKING SOD

Erik Sundsted broke 400 acres with a walking plow. Later with Moguls, Titans and Fordson tractors they ended up with 1900 acres broke to farm. Erik said the Moguls were a junk pile, the Titans were worse, but the Fordsons were heaven.

SUNDSTED COMPANY - Breaking sod with a Fordson Tractor

The Fordson Model F had a 4-cylinder gasoline engine, a 3-speed transmission, and a worm gear final drive. It had four wheels and looked a little like a modern tractor with the exception that the wheels were all steel with no rubber tires and instead sported metal spikes for traction in soil.

SUNDSTED COMPANY THRESRING RIG -POWERED BY AN INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER (IH)

In 1912 the Sundsted Farm Company bought their own threshing rig, a Case 36" separator powered by their Mogul. At that time, they had several separators and threshed until 1926 when they bought a 16' Case combine. One fall they cut over 2200 acres between their own and custom combining.

SUNDSTED FAMILY COMPANY HOUSE 1915

Sundsted Family Company

When the five brothers and sisters homesteaded in Montana and built their company house, they divided the work between them in the most practical way – each according to ability and preferences:

Erik became the foreman,
Anton was the mechanic,
Thomas the bookkeeper,
and the two sisters Marie
and Katrine became cooks and housekeepers.

JUNE 5th CELEBRATION - SUNDSTED COMPANY HOUSE

Constitution Day (Danish: Grundlovsdag) is observed in Denmark on 5 June.

The day honors the first Constitution of Denmark 1849.

On that day in 1915 Danish women won the right to vote.

Grundlovsdag is widely celebrated throughout Denmark with church congregations, associations and political organizations meeting for what are essentially "secular services". These services include the raising of Dannebrog, the Danish flag, a short speech by a local politician or celebrity, and collective singing (Danish: fællessang).

NATHANAEL LUTHERAN CHURCH - DAGMAR MONTANA

Nathanael Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church was organized June 9, 1907, less than a year after the first Danish settlers came to the area and established the colony of Dagmar, Montana.

In the summer of 1910, a small meeting house was completed at a cost of $1200, and it was used for social gatherings as well as worship.

The cornerstone was laid during the midsummerfest (St. Hans 21 June) in 1915, and the church was dedicated December 17, 1916.

On April 25th, 2023 the Nathanael Lutheran Church burned to the ground.

INTERIOR - NATHANAEL LUTHERAN CHURCH - DAGMAR

Even today Nathanael is still a totally rural church with the parsonage across the yard from the church.

The congregation bought ten acres for a building site. A cemetery was dedicated across the corner from the church property on August 21, 1909, and that same day one of the first to take land in the colony was buried there.

A copy of the statue (original 1821) by the Danish sculptor Bertel Thorvaldsen is considered the most perfect statue of Christ in the world. It exists in many copies, both in churches in Denmark and in other churches around the world.

Christ is represented with open arms, saying to the world 'come to me and I will give you rest'.

ERIC CHRISTENSEN SUNDSTED
(1880 -1971)

(Son of B-2. Knud Christensen Sundsted)

Born: 27 March 1880, Poulstrup, Denmark

Died: 20 April 1971 Plentywood Montana, USA

Emigrated 1902. Not married.

Erik Sundsted, built two living monuments to himself in the Dagmar community. These were in the form of attractive groves of trees on the farmsteads now occupied by Erik, Jr. and by Carl Sundsted.

In the earlier Dagmar years his first grove of trees was one of the finest in the area and was the site of large Fourth of July celebrations when people would assemble in the trees for picnic lunches, speeches and lusty singing. Then would follow baseball games, horseshoe playing and all forms of races with cash prizes for the winners.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the hope that this – our extended family story from both sides of the great ocean – should never be forgotten, I Gitta Bechshøft, a Danish relative of the Sundsted family, wishes to thank

PERI SCOTT KAAE

Grandson of ELSINE KATHRINE SUNDSTED

(1887-1976)

and JENS (Jim) PETER NIELSEN KAAE

(1886-1978)

Peri helped me keep track of his (our) extended family, supplying me with a wealth of old photographs, copies of old letters full of family lore and tradition regarding their Danish "roots", as well as many stories telling of their new life and identity as pioneers in Montana, USA.
